Celebrate Memorial Day in North Arlington with a Parade, Music, Food and Fun

NORTH ARLINGTON, NJ - May 24, 2023 – The Borough of North Arlington will host a Memorial Day Parade and celebration on Monday, May 29 to honor U.S. troops that have fallen in combat.

The parade will begin at 2 p.m. at the intersection of Ridge Road and Canterbury Avenue, and continue south down Ridge Road. The Borough is offering a sensory-friendly quiet zone between Astor Avenue and Albert Street. As the parade goes through these blocks, no loud sirens or music will blare.

“Our goal is to make the day both a memorable and enjoyable experience for all of our residents, while remembering our fallen troops”, says North Arlington Mayor Daniel H. Pronti.

Councilwoman Lynette Cavadas, who advocated for a parade quiet zone stated, “We hope that the quiet zone will help alleviate stress for those adults, children and even pets who are affected by loud noises.”

The Memorial Day parade will end at Borough Hall, 214 Ridge Road, with a short ceremony followed by hot dogs and ice cream compliments of Mayor Pronti and the North Arlington Borough Council.
